

OFFICIAL SENSITIVE PERSONAL

Lt Col Arthur Dawe - Bio

Lieutenant Colonel Arthur Dawe joined the Army in 2001, commissioning into the Scots Guards.

Initially posted to London on ceremonial duties, he then served as a Platoon Commander in the Guards Training Division.

Further postings included Poland, Canada and Germany where he was an Armoured Infantry Platoon and Company Commander.

He worked in Joint Capabilities in the MoD during SDSR10 and is experienced in several other key Staff appointment roles, both in the MoD and in the Field Army.

He has completed multiple tours of duty in Northern Ireland, Kosovo, Iraq and Afghanistan and overseas short-term training tasks (STTT).

OFFICIAL SENSITIVE PERSONAL